CAREERS DAY!

This week at Meadowcroft, Hubbers have been prepping the school for its first ever careers day (so this is kind of a big deal), scheduled on Friday the 8th of March! With our school's reputation for bucking expectations, we're pretty confident it'll be nothing short of another fantastic first for Meadowcroft! Pupils have questions, and we've booked a plethora of providers to accommodate. Who you ask? We're a fan of surprises at the Hub, so you'll have to wait and see!

ANIMAL EXPLOITATION

In addition to the focus on CSE, one of our younger pupils wanted to chip in by putting a spotlight on another vulnerable class of being; animals. All too often, animals too are subjected to manipulation and exploitation by individuals with unsavoury intentions. Whyke, often donning his signature Batman cap put it best; "Not on my watch!" Therefore, Whyke alongside Alicia have been working tirelessly to prepare a presentation of their own, centred on Animal Exploitation scheduled soon. Keep making us proud guys!

CSE CONTINUATION

If you caught the debut of Meadowcroft's weekly newsletter, you'll remember that the Hub's most senior and conscientious students had been tackling the hard-pressing issue of Child Sex Exploitation (CSE). To capitalise on the 'Loudmouth' Drama Company visiting the school on the 18th of March, Charlie and Alicia have been tenaciously labouring over the preparation of their very own 'Webinar', yet again exercising their hidden talents as educators; I don't know about you, but I'm chomping at the bit for its airing on Thursday, the 21st of March! Stay tuned!

CSE CONTINUATION

Finally, last but in no way least, Liam has been selectively accepted onto an extensive tour organised by the National Fostering Agency (NFA) alongside a variety of other pupils from different schools. Not only does this mean a visit to Scotland at Easter, but also a trip to Canada come summer! After chatting about his thoughts on perhaps a life-changing adventure with Mr Arshad (we just call him T), was it Canada's beautiful vistas or welcoming culture T left Liam to ponder? Nope; it was about the necessity and satisfaction he'd feel... in getting his very own 'Canada Goose' Jacket... Nice one T. Nevertheless, Liam will first have to raise funds to secure his placement, but I can assure you, no pupil is better equipped for the task! With the guidance and aid of Mr Czternastek (aka, Polish Prince) on Liam's side, raising the dosh will be a doddle.
