QUEEN-BEE!

Summer, the Hub's queen-bee, is about to start her work placement with Meadowcroft's very own Primary. Her dynamite acrobat skills on our signature trampoline, coupled with her motherly disposition, worked wonders for Primary during their PE sessions last week. Keep it up queen-bee, we know you'll do us proud!

CRUNCH TIME!

Exams... the dreaded word many of us often synonymise with blood, sweat and tears (I know I did in my early years). However, despite the mountain of pressure and stake assessments carry with them, Meadowcroft's pupils have moved heaven and earth to put in their all. Helped along with the promise of extra points (and as much support as you could wag a stick at), both the Works and Hub pupils have been working overtime to complete GCSE 'speaking and listening presentations' and functional skills maths exams (I know, core subject alert). However, these speaking and listening presentations have allowed our pupils to pour their hearts into subjects that matter to them. Whether it be why joining the military is your calling (you're on your way Liam) or why Loki survived the events of Avengers: Infinity War (seriously though Jake, he's gone, I'm sorry), passion oozed through our pupil's presentations left and right. It's been a tough week guys, but you've pulled through with style!
