

BISTRO 42 - ARTICLE

Another bird leaves the nest (well, almost). You see, here at Meadowcroft School, our goal isn't to simply ensure that our pupils are successful in life. Nope nope nope! We want our pupils to be successful, and above all else... happy. To do that, we sincerely believe helping our pupils to realise their passions is a pretty safe bet. And on Monday the 9th, Josh (our culinary master in waiting) secured weekly work experience that'll bring him that much closer to his dream. Of course, bagging such a delicious opportunity doesn't come without hardship. Josh knew he could walk the walk, but could he talk the talk? Now, with the people he knows, our chef is the life of any party, shindig and dare I say... lollapalooza. But, like many of us, Josh finds the prospect of meeting fresh faces quite daunting. Nonetheless, dead-set on his dream of becoming a chef, Josh braved his demons. And guess what? He only went and nailed it; a pitch for why he'd be the perfect pick to employ at Bistro 42's bustling restaurant in Wakefield! Not only that, Josh made such an impression that he was told if he were to nail his GCSEs come next year (piece of cake), Bistro 42 would gladly offer him a position! So, Josh... LET'S GET YOU THOSE GRADES!

We couldn't be more delighted, just be sure to remember us when you open your own restaurant okay?!
